intentional concealment of criminal activity through random ordering and deceptive file names may require the examination of all stored data. This process may take weeks or months depending on the volume of the data involved and the caseload of the computer expert.

One such forensic and controlled laboratory environment is the Heart of America Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory (HARCFL), which is physically located in Clay County, Missouri. The HARCFL is a cooperative law enforcement organization comprised of federal, state and local certified Forensic Examiners that provide digital forensic services to law enforcement throughout Kansas and the western two-thirds of Missouri.

Recognizing that specialized and highly technical equipment and software will be needed to conduct the analysis of the previously seized digital media, the media will likely be transferred to the HARCFL or other qualified laboratory with a request that a forensic examination be conducted in this matter. Additionally, under limited situations, assistance may be required by the receiving laboratory from other qualified laboratories.

Section 5: Evidence of Probable Cause:

The evidence of probable cause to believe that which is sought to be searched for and seized described with particularity and set forth above in Section 4 as evidence, fruits and/or instrumentalities of the crime and the evidence of probable cause to believe that such are now located in the premises to be searched as described in Section 3 above is set forth hereinafter:

SEARCH WARRANT

THE STATE OF KANSAS to Any and All Law Enforcement Officers of the State of Kansas:

Having reviewed evidence before me under oath from which I have found probable cause to believe that a crime has been or is being committed, and sufficient facts have been presented to me under oath or affirmation which particularly describe the person, place or means of conveyance to be searched as identified in the caption hereof and such facts have established probable cause to believe that the following described articles have been used in the commission of a crime or are contraband or property which constitutes or may be considered a part of the evidence, fruits or instrumentalities of a crime, to-wit:

1. Cellular telephone, with telephone number 785-000-0000, unknown make or model.
2. Computer(s), unknown make or model.
3. Any and all photographs, which may depict the victim in a nude or partially nude state.
4. Digital camera used to take photographs.
5. Any video equipment used to make home movies or videos.

10. This request for a warrant involves the potential seizure and review of computer and/or digital media. The analysis of computer and/or digital media is an exacting scientific procedure which is designed to protect the integrity of the evidence and to recover digital information, to include hidden, erased, compressed, password-protected or encrypted files. The analysis of evidence from computer and digital systems commonly require the seizure of all computer related items to be processed by a qualified computer expert in a laboratory or other controlled environment. The high volume of the contents and the potential intentional concealment of criminal activity through random ordering and deceptive file names may require the examination of all stored data. This process may take weeks or months depending on the volume of the data involved and the caseload of the computer expert.

One such forensic and controlled laboratory environment is the Heart of America Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory (HARCFL), which is physically located in Clay County, Missouri. The HARCFL is a cooperative law enforcement organization comprised of federal, state and local certified Forensic Examiners that provide digital forensic services to law enforcement throughout Kansas and the western two-thirds of Missouri.

with a request that a forensic examination be conducted in this matter. Additionally, under limited situations, assistance may be required by the receiving laboratory from other qualified laboratories

And that there is probable cause to believe that the above-described articles to be seized are located in or on the above described premises or person to be searched.

THEREFORE, YOU ARE COMMANDED forthwith to search the person, place, thing, or means of conveyance described above within ninety-six (96) hours of the time and date of the issuance hereof and to seize the things described above to be seized and to hold them to be dealt with according to law.

This Search Warrant may be executed at any time of any day or night within ninety-six (96) hours of issuance within the:

Enter Judicial District.

On execution hereof you should make due return of this warrant and a copy hereof shall be provided the person searched or the person in possession or control of the premises or thing or means of conveyance searched and if such person is not present a copy together with a completed return shall be left on or in the premises, thing, or means of conveyance searched.
